

Who should attend?

Anybody and everybody who is or could be involved in a Tennessee workers' compensation claim. Employers, insurance adjusters, self-insurers, third party administrators, safety and human resource managers, plaintiff and defense attorneys, health care providers, mediators and medical and vocational rehabilitation providers are encouraged to attend to receive valuable information about Tennessee's workers' compensation system. Networking opportunities are plentiful, exhibitors will have the latest on industry products and services, and valuable seminars led by noted industry leaders from across the country will provide insight. Applications are pending for CRC, CDMS, CCM, CLE, SHRM and insurance provider continuing education credits. A certificate of attendance will be provided for other professional disciplines.

Kids' Chance Scholarship Auction

In 2017 alone, over 120 Tennesseans went to work in the morning and did not safely return home that evening. They were killed at work, leaving far too many children to face life without a parent. Accompanying the loss or need to care for an injured parent is the increased likelihood that these children cannot afford a college education. In Tennessee, Kids' Chance can help.

Kids' Chance is a non-profit organization that has awarded over 6,500 scholarships totaling over $20 million.

A fundraising auction will be held on-site at the hotel. Admission to the Auction is included in your conference registration. Bid online at bit.ly/kidschance19
